ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

What you can expect on the retreat:

Eucharist: The “source and summit” of our faith is celebrated communally each day.

Large Group: Inspirational and encouraging talks, prayer, testimonies and communal worship.

Adoration: Private and communal times will be available throughout the weekend.

Rosary: We will pray the rosary daily, though not required, you are invited to join us to discover its beauty.

Small Group: The sharing and discussion with your brothers provide intimate opportunities to share testimonies and grow in faith and brotherhood.

Spiritual Direction: Each retreatant will have the opportunity to meet with a priest or deacon for direction Friday and Saturday

Free Time: There is plenty of free time to spend alone in prayer, talking with others, in God’s Word, or however the Spirit leads.

Confession: Although we recommend going to the sacrament prior to the retreat, priest will be available during the weekend.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are provided. Feel free to bring a snack to share with the community.

We hope you are as excited as we are to experience God’s plan for us, as we grow in grace learning how to be more open to the Holy Spirit in our lives and more in tune to hearing God’s voice through the prompting of His Spirit.

The retreat starts promptly at 9:00 a.m., Friday, March 29.

The Registration Table will be up and dorm rooms open at 7:30 am. so you can move in your gear and get settled.

Here is a list of items you may wish to bring:
